Series 1: Diary (1912-1913)

Series number 1

Series title Diary

Date 1912-1913

Scope and content

This series consists of one leather-bound personal diary of Charles Pound, which records his visit to America in company with P. Cowley, District Supervising Stock Inspector and P.B. Chauvel, to study the prevalence of tick in that country. At this time Charles Pound was the Government Bacteriologist at the Yeerongpilly Stock Experiment Station. The diary includes loose notes, newspaper cuttings and memoranda. Pound records his voyage from Sydney aboard RMS Zealandia in June, and visited Toronto, Canada, New York, and on to many properties in Atlanta, Louisiana, and Texas and attending the International Congress Chambers of Commerce, Washington in October. They left New York aboard RMS Carmania, stopping in England for several weeks before arriving home in early January 1913.
