Administrative / Biographical history George Vardas migrated to Australia from Greece prior to World War Two. He served in New Guinea during the war. He operate a store in Eagle Farm before work as a travelling sales rep for P. Samios & Co who supplied small goods to corner stores. George was twice married but had no children. His sister had three daughters which are most likely the young girls often depicted in his movies. As well as film making, George was a keen hunter and angler, and was heavily involved in the Olympic soccer club. He often returned to Greece and after his death the films in this collection were found in property owned by him in Athens, and were returned to Australia.

Movie 10 ([1955-1958])

Unit ID 32433/10

Date [1955-1958]

Scope and content

Home movie beginning with footage of a band performing at a dance in a hall. The band is The Rockettes, described as Brisbane's first rock 'n' roll band. The Rockettes existed between 1955 and 1958 before evolving into The Blue Jays. Band members Chuck Suppice (on guitar), Ronnie Carroll (on piano), Ozzie Mengel (on rhythm guitar) and Kenny McKerchner (on vocals) are all pictured. The concert venue is possibly Morningside RSL, where the band organised their own concerts during the mid 1950s. The footage continues showing a beauty pageant, synchronized swimming, trapeze artists, Brophy's Circus, boxing and wrestling at Brisbane Stadium (Festival Hall) and a candy bar. The wrestling footage includes an extended segment of a bout featuring Canadian wrestler Sky Hi Lee (Ski-Hi Lee). His opponent is possibly American wrestler Ricky Waldo.
