Administrative / Biographical history The organisation has spread to many countries in the world, with approximately a quarter of a million Quakers world-wide. There are about 1000 members in Australia, and about 1000 non-members who participate in Quaker activities and worship. In Australia, the organisation began when Rachel Hopkins, and sons Francis and William, and daughter Anna, arrived in Brisbane on the ship, 'Sultana', in 1862, and meetings were held in their home at Milton. As Quaker numbers grew, a Meeting House was built in 1866. The first General Meeting of Australian Quakers was held at St Peter's Lutheran College at Indooroopilly in 1950, and then at Cromwell College, St Lucia in 1960.
