Abstract Five photograph albums compiled by Henrietta D. Clark (1891-1971). The photographs were taken between 1915 and 1953, and are enlargements printed from the negatives in the late 1950s. Altogether, there are 279 black and white photographs (mostly 8 x 14 cm) loosely inserted into photo corners. All photographs are captioned and most are dated.

Scope and content The collection includes family photographs, particularly of Henrietta's sister Lesley Jane Clark and her son Theodore, images of the architectural details of buildings particularly in Brisbane, and photographs of the natural environment and coastal scenes. There are several 'still life' images of floral arrangements in vases, and photographs of ships, the Brisbane Exhibition, gardens, statues and fountains in Brisbane, and of churches and buildings in smaller towns and suburbs.

System of arrangement Arranged into 1 series

Description 279 photographs in 5 albums

Additional format Digital copies available for selected items.

Administrative / Biographical history Henrietta Clark (originally Clarke), known as Ettie, was one of four daughters of Alexander Henry Clark and Mary Lou (nee Keith). In 1921 Henrietta Clark married the botanist Cyril Tenison White (1890-1950). Henrietta and Cyril shared a love of bushwalking, plants and the outdoors, which is reflected in this collection. Henrietta's sister Lesley Jane Clark worked at the Tosca Studio and was regarded a promising artist. Lesley married Holger (Henry) Nielson Lovf, anglicised Love. They lived at Goodwood Street, Hendra, and are pictured with their son Theodore in the first album in this collection. Holger Nielson Love was a draftsman with the Survey Department and a cartoonist for the Brisbane Courier from 1915 to 1928. The Loves had a second son Alexander Henry Love was born in about 1924.
